Lázaro, hijo de un ladrón y acemilero, queda huérfano en Salamanca. Estará al servicio de diferentes amos (un ciego, un hidalgo arruinado, un clérigo avaricioso, un fraile de la Merced, un burlero farsante, etc.), y ejercerá varios oficios, que permiten al narrador realizar una sátira de los diferentes estamentos de la sociedad de la época y reflexionar con ironía sobre el tema de la honra. Novela picaresca, origen y modelo en su género, se publicó en 1594.
