Con Formas de vida, Jacques Fontanille culmina el estudio de su recorrido del plano de la expresión, cuya cima constituyen. Una forma de vida, dice el autor, es una deformación coherente que afecta al conjunto de los niveles del recorrido generativo de un discurso o de un universo semiótico cualquiera, desde los esquemas sensoriales y perceptivos hasta las estructuras narrativas, modales y axiológicas.

En este libro pasa revista a formas de vida tan diferentes como el bello gesto, las formas de competitividad, las formas de creencia, las formas de vida invasivas que generan los medios de comunicación y la mundialización en marcha, las variaciones estacionales de la moda y demás formas de creencia y de confianza. Lectura rica en enseñanzas y sabrosa.
