Este es un libro realmente innovador que nos relata la vida de Francisco Pizarro, el conquistador de Perú, en el marco de una visión más realista de la conquista, que no se limita a glosar las hazañas de los vencedores, sino que cuenta también sus miserias y no olvida recordar la triste suerte de los vencidos. Esteban Mira Caballos, autor de una extensa obra de investigación sobre la conquista, estudia aquí la vida y personalidad de Francisco Pizarro, rescatándolo de una literatura sesgada que o lo convierte en un héroe intachable o lo denigra como un tirano, y a la vez que nos relata la gesta que le permitió conquistar el imperio Inca del Tahuantinsuyu al frente de una reducida hueste, nos cuenta también la forma en que las ambiciones de mando y la codicia del botín condujeron a sangrientos enfrentamientos entre los vencedores.
