La pobreza y la injusticia son temas que han preocupado a Timothy Keller desde que empezó como pastor hace más de treinta años. En "Justicia generosa" demuestra que aunque en el pasado era bien sabido que la Biblia es el fundamento moral de la justicia en la sociedad, las posiciones contrarias de los conservadores y de los liberales han polarizado tanto la opinión que ni siquiera la iglesia puede ponerse de acuerdo sobre qué significa "hacer justicia". Keller examina pasajes bíblicos clave que promueven la práctica justa y desvela que solo a través de una experiencia profunda de la gracia de Dios obtendremos la motivación para preocuparnos de los pobres.
