Publicada en 1960, La tregua es la obra de Mario Benedetti que ha alcanzado mayor éxito de público. La cotidianidad gris y rutinaria, marcada por la frustración y la ausencia de perspectivas de la clase media urbana, impregna las páginas de esta novela, que, adoptando la forma de un diario personal, relata un breve período de la vida de un empleado viudo, próximo a la jubilación, cuya existencia se divide entre la oficina, la casa, el café y una precaria vida familiar dominada por una difícil relación con unos hijos ya adultos. Una inesperada relación amorosa, que parece ofrecer al protagonista un horizonte de liberación y felicidad personal, queda trágicamente interrumpida y será tan sólo un inciso -una tregua- en su lucha cotidiana contra el tedio, la soledad y el paso implacable del tiempo.
