Sin saberlo, tres famosos escritores de best seller trabajan en el mismo libro. Cuando dos de ellos mueren en extrañas circunstancias, el tercero -Elías Miele, novelista chileno radicado en Estados Unidos- se obsesiona con desentrañar las intrigas que giran en torno a esta misteriosa novela: La cuarta carabela. De este modo, Miele no solo se verá inmerso en una aventura para salvar su vida, sino que dará los primeros pasos para resolver un enigma que cambiará para siempre la historia de América Latina. En un recorrido vertiginoso que encuentra escenarios desde Shangháí hasta Santiago de Chile, pasando por Toledo y Buenos Aires, Miele, acompañado de un entrañable grupo de personajes, encontrará en iglesias, museos y cementerios las piezas de un rompecabezas político y religioso articulado por una poderosa organización evangélica de ultra derecha norteamericana. Sacando a la luz un peligroso secreto guardado por Bernardo O´Higgins, José de San Martín, Francisco de Miranda y otros padres forjadores de la independencia americana -todos miembros de la Logia Lautarina- el National Committee for Christian Leadership pretenderá destruir el dominio de la Iglesia Católica en Latinoamérica.
