Maggie, la hermana seria y sensata, protagoniza esta tercera novela de la saga de la «Familia Walsh».

Me llamo Maggie, tengo treinta años y llevo nueve casada con Garv (le llamo así, pero no es su nombre). Siempre he sido la buena de mi familia, la sensata, no como mis hermanas. Sobre ellas se podrían escribir novelas enteras, pero este no es el lugar. Garv fue mi primer novio y mi madre siempre se lo va contando a todo el mundo, «que Maggie no era una de esas que salen cada noche con un chico distinto», y cosas por el estilo.

Bueno, como te decía, yo era muy sensata hasta que un día lo vi todo diferente y dejé a Grav para ir a vivir a Hollywood con mi amiga Emily.

¿Por qué?, estarás pensando. Bueno, ahora tienes que empezar a leer el libro. Solo te digo que tenía mis razones, no me dio ningún ataque de locura...

Reseña:

«Una historia romántica que combina agudas e inteligentes observaciones sobre la amistad, el amor y la familia con un gran sentido del humor.»
