If you want to change the world, start off by making your bed.

On May 17, 2014, Admiral William H. McRaven addressed the graduating class of the University of Texas at Austin on their Commencement day. Taking inspiration from the university's slogan, "What starts here changes the world," he shared the ten principles he learned during Navy Seal training that helped him overcome challenges not only in his training and long Naval career, but also throughout his life; and he explained how anyone can use these basic lessons to change themselves-and the world-for the better

...

- Begin each day with a simple task
- Help one another you through life
- Respect everyone
- Know that your life won't be fair
- That you will fail often
- Take risks
- Step-up when times are tough
- Face-down the bullies
- Lift-up the downtrodden
- And never ever give up

Do these things and we will live in a far better world than the one before it.

Admiral McRaven's original speech went viral with over 10 million views.

Building on the core tenets laid out in his speech, McRaven now recounts tales from his own life and from those of people he encountered during his military service who dealt with hardship and made tough decisions with determination, compassion, honour, and courage.
