Simone de Beauvoir fue una de las grandes voces europeas del siglo XX, una pensadora imprescindible para entender el desarrollo de la filosofía contemporánea en general y del feminismo en particular.

Su famosísimo ensayo El segundo sexo representa la piedra sobre la que se originó toda la filosofía feminista, cuya herencia sigue completamente vigente en la actualidad: la denuncia de las opresiones que sufren las mujeres sobre sus cuerpos a través de la construcción social y cultural de la existencia, y que las imposibilita para ser sujetos plenos ("No se hace mujer, sino que se llega a serlo").

La filosofía reivindicativa de Simone de Beauvoir inauguró una nueva concepción del papel de la mujer en el mundo.
