La obra monumental de James Joyce. Ulises es el relato de un día en la vida de 3 personajes: Leopold Bloom, su mujer Molly y el joven Stephen Dedalus. Un viaje de un día, una Odisea inversa, en la que los temas tópicamente homéricos se invierten y subvierten a través de un grupo decididamente antiheroico cuya tragedia raya la comicidad. Relato paródico de la épica de la condición humana y de Dublín y sus buenas costumbres cuya estructura, desbordantemente vanguardista, avisa a cada rato de su dificultad y exige la máxima dedicación. Ulises es un libro altisonante, soez y erudito donde los haya que ofrece una literatura distinta, extraña, ocasionalmente molesta y sin duda excepcional.
