Antes de convertirse en el más influyente de los autores del género negro, Dashiell Hammett tuvo, al igual que sus personajes, una vida de novela. Para conocer mejor la génesis de este escritor revolucionario, Nathan Ward plantea una inteligente mirada a su larga etapa de formación, en la que tiene una importancia capital su trabajo en la legendaria agencia de detectives Pinkerton, que le proporcionaría cuantioso material para crear su violento universo literario. Un detective llamado Dashiell Hammett es una documentada biografía, salpicada de incontables anécdotas, que ofrece el vívido retrato de un investigador privado que acabó siendo un escritor irreplicable.
